THE FLOWERS OF GLYNLLISON

ARISTOCRATS OF THE GARDEN

REORGANIZATION SALE.

The growing of our specialties now requires so much time and space, that we have decided to discontinue our general lines, and offer herein some great values in high class goods. This circular takes the place of our 1927 Catalogue.

Hereafter Glynllison's list of Peonies, Daffodils and Tulips in the Fall, and Gladiolus, Dahlias, Cannas and Iris in the Spring, will delight you. Do not miss them. Always a few of the newest and choicest in Flower and Garden seeds too.

SPECIAL NOTICE! Please draw checks and money orders to Glynllison Gardens, and not to the Manager, as he is not the Treasurer. However I shall always be glad to give my personal attention to letters directed to me.

We are ready at all times to adjust complaints in a manner satisfactory to you. We do not guarantee results on any goods we send out, but will gladly replace improper goods, if you will write us.

Prices are by mail prepaid unless otherwise stated.

Terms, cash with order. No goods C. O. D.

Address, GLYNLLISON GARDENS,

Hayden Row, Mass.

SOMETHING NEW— RAINBOW FOLIAGE BED.

A Novelty imported from Europe. Beautiful and ornamental plants, with leaves in every color known to foliage, white, cream, yellow, pink, scarlet, maroon, bronze and every shade of green. More beautiful and varied than our favorite coleus.

Plants grow to height of 3 to 4 feet, and form a striking bed or border for lawn or garden. Best results are had by planting early in the house and transplanting to the garden, but the seeds may be planted out doors as late as June with excellent results.

Sold only in sealed packets, one pkt. will plant a 3-foot bed. Three packets, a 5 or 6 foot bed.
Per Packet 25 cents, 3 for 50 cents.

GLYNLLISON'S DAHLIAS.

A Bargain for Dahlia Lovers.

Discontinuing a large number of fine named Dahlias to make room for our own new varieties. We are putting them all in a grand mixture. This is not a field mixture that we have sold in the past, but is made up from our named varieties and we will include at least one labeled dahlia with every dozen, and we will guarantee at least eight different varieties in every dozen. See list of dahlias on another page. These are included as well as some 200 other varieties listing as high as $5.00 each. Varieties must be our selection. We replace any tuber that fails to grow, and if you are not pleased with the flowers we will give you a new lot next season. Offered in two grades as follows:—

Grade A—3 labeled	Dozen	$2.50.
by express	12 Dozen	25.00.
	6 Dozen	13.00.
Grade B—1 labeled	Dozen	$1.50.
By express	12 Dozen	15.00.
	6 Dozen	8.00.

YE OLDE FASHIONED GARDEN.

50 Hardy Flowering Plants, $5.00.

We are discontinuing our entire line of hardy plants and offer at only 10 cents each a large assortment of varieties which we have sold at 25 cents to $1.00 each. All plants are strong, 2 and 3 years old and field clumps. No one year seedlings in the lot.

All our beautiful Larkspur, Columbine, Foxglove, Lupines, Red Hot Poker, and many others included.

For an old fashioned garden or hardy border these cannot be equalled at the price.

They will be carefully packed, each variety separately labeled. All are perfectly hardy and grown in our own nursery. This offer is made to clear them out as we need the ground for our bulbs.

They will be sold in lots of 5 of a variety, and not less than 25 plants will be sold.

25 Plants Postpaid	$3.00.
50 Plants by Express	5.00.
100 Plants by Express	9.50.

If 50 plants are desired by parcel post add 50 cents for postage and special service charge, as all plants by mail will be sent "Special Service."

GLADIOLUS CLEARANCE.

AMERICAN FANTASIE

Glynllison's Glorious Medley.

We offer our customers who want the best, the finest lot of named Gladiolus ever put in a mixture. Such varieties as Henry Ford, Fern Kyle, Purple Glory, Glorius, Marie Kunderd, Ruffled America, Catlaya, Pink and White Wonder, Mrs. F. C. Peters and many others.

This medley, no two alike, will make one of the richest gems in your garden either for display or cutting. All are named varieties of the finest quality, but unlabeled as the price does not cover cost of labels.

We are so sure these will please you that we will give you credit for the full amount paid if after blooming you do not honestly believe them worth the price. Full size bulbs.

20 postpaid	$2.00.
55 postpaid	5.00.
115 postpaid	10.00.
Half size bulbs.
35 postpaid	$2.00.
95 postpaid	5.00.
200 postpaid	10.00.

Lots of over 50 bulbs will contain some duplicates.

All orders are to be our own selection and we include the best varieties we have when your order is received.

If you love beautiful flowers, try the Medley at our risk. We want you to learn of Glynllison's new policy and we know every sale of the Medley means a friend for life.

Tell your friends. Club together and send a good size order and get still bigger value.

GROW GLADIOLUS FROM SEEDS.

Gladiolus like dahlias do not come true from seeds, you can easily grow new varieties and may get a prize.

A most fascinating garden game, a new thrill every morning of the blooming season with the discovery of a new color and type. The writer's thousands of seedlings are the delight of his whole year's work.

An early morning trip to the seedlings gladdens the heart and makes us realize more than ever the wonderful works of the Creator.

We offer packets of about 500 seeds saved from our best varieties, enough for a good seedling bed for $1.00.

GLYNLLISON'S CHOICE DAHLIAS.

THE DAY LILY.

The Hemerocalis or yellow day lily is once again becoming increasingly popular. Its beautiful yellow flowers, very large and lasting through a long blooming season, add a golden glory to the garden. The three varieties listed below will bloom continuously from early May to September.

Gold Dust. New, bright yellow, with reverse of petals golden bronze. 2 to 3 ft. Blooms May and June.

Dr. Rigel. Deep golden yellow, large flowers. Blooms June and July.

Kwanso. The double day lily. The Queen of them all. Very large double flowers. 3 to 4 feet tall. Blooms continuously from June to September.

All are perfectly hardy. Grown in our nursery. Price either variety each 35 cents

The White Amaryllis.

Ismene Calathena. Immense pure white Amaryllis-shaped flowers, blooms a few weeks after planting; as easy to grow as Gladiolus, and is dug up in the fall and kept in the same manner. This is really one of the loveliest of the Amaryllis tribe, which will be appreciated at sight.

Each, 40 cents; three for $1.00; dozen, $3.50

Summer Hyacinth.

A snow white summer flowering hyacinth, growing 3 to 5 feet high, gracefully surmounted with 20 to 30 pure white bell-shaped flowers. Hardy and may be left in the ground, coming up each year.

Each, 35 cents; three for $1.00; dozen, $3.50.

IRIS.

The German Iris, curiously the Fleur De Lis, or Liberty flower of France and one of our most beautiful Spring plants is also one of the hardiest and easiest to grow. We have them that have survived for a hundred and fifty years in the gardens of this old town, as well as many of the later productions.

Our collection contains every color common to the Iris, and our mixtures will please you.

Aristocrats Mixed.

We have secured from a large estate a great quantity of Irises which the owner has been collecting for several years, but as they have become mixed in replanting, we offer them as they run, without labels. For the mixed hardy border, or mass planting they will excel in beauty any Iris mixture obtainable anywhere at any price, as they form a large collection of the best named varieties.
